

To the Members of the California State Senate:

Given California's significant budget challenge, I cannot consider bills that would add significant fiscal pressures to the State's structural budget deficit.

For this reason, I am returning SB 867 without my signature.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger